OUR CLEAN HANDS POEM

Clean Hands CHAMPIONS

It's rhyme time, and we'd love to see your creativity, and write us a clean hands poem. To help spark your imagination, here is ours, we hope you like it!

In the morning and evening, and the bits in between
It's always important to keep your hands clean!

Before we eat breakfast, lunch, or tea,
We'll use soap and water to scrub properly.

If you go to the bathroom or cuddle your pets,
play in the garden - we know what comes next

We'll use soap and water, and scrub 1-2-3,
Then rinse off your hands - now you can show me!

Here are some rhyming words you might want to use in your poem:

1. Clean and Seen
2. Think and Sink
3. Play and Way
4. Scrub and Tub
5. Eat and Neat
6. Hands and Plans
7. Germ and Term
8. Wash and Gosh

Before you start, can you think of another four rhyming words?

1. _____

2. _____

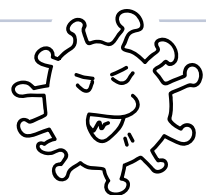

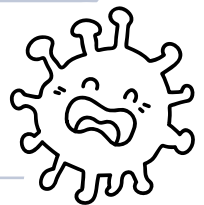

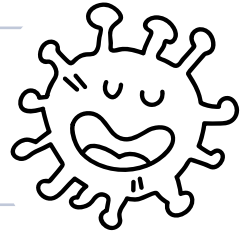

3. _____

4. _____
